Coronavirus - COVID-19

In collaboration with the prevention authorities and in compliance with government recommendations and requirements, here are the measures taken by the municipality of Bouchette to date:

1- Since Tuesday and until further notice, all municipal buildings are no longer accessible to the population; municipal office, municipal hall, sports pavilion, outdoor skating rink.

2- The municipal library is also closed until further notice.

3- Municipal staff is available by phone (819-465-2555) or by email info@bouchette.ca.

4- Essential municipal services are maintained. We remain available for emergencies and priority work.

5- We have a mailbox at the entrance of the municipal office to drop off your documents if necessary.

6- For the payment of your municipal taxes we invite you to use the online services or the outdoor mailbox to deposit your checks.

7- If you know people who are alone and who need help, please let us know.

8- For the time being, no change has been made to the procedures for paying municipal taxes. The first payment of taxes is due on March 31, 2020.

9- We invite you to regularly consult the Quebec government website, www.quebec.ca, and ask you to respect the instructions and directives in the context of COVID-19, for the good of all.
